Basic Mediation Training

Applicants must successfully complete a Basic Mediation Training (BMT) that includes at least 36 hours of actual training experience. The BMT curriculum should include the following components:

1. ADR AND MEDIATION: An explanation of mediation in the continuum of dispute resolution alternatives that include discussions of different styles of mediation and how to assess the appropriate style for individual cases.
2. THEORY: Explanation of negotiation and conflict theory, including an analysis of conflict styles, distributive and integrative bargaining, BATNA, and types of joint gains.
3. SKILLS: Training that includes, but is not limited to, communication and listening skills, identifying underlying interests and motivations, assessing the impact of cultural differences on negotiation.
4. INTAKE AND ASSESSMENT: Training on intake and assessment procedures should include screening parties to determine if the dispute is appropriate for mediation.
5. MEDIATION PROCESS: Training in and application of components of the mediation process including: mediator's opening statement, the parties' opening statements, agenda setting, negotiation, generating and evaluating options, caucus, agreement writing and closure.
6. ETHICS: Discussion and analysis of ethical issues in mediation, standards of practice, and Washington State statutes pertaining to mediation.
7. EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING: Twelve hours of interactive exercises including supervised mediation role-play.

BASIC MEDIATION TRAINING DOCUMENTATION

The following documentation needs to accompany the application:

1. Certificates of completion issued by the individual or organization that conducted the training, or if offered through a college or university, verification of attendance or completion. (Note: Graduates of any 40 hour Academy of Family Mediator or WMA approved Washington State Dispute Resolution Center basic mediation training need only submit certificate of training to meet this requirement. Documentation for items 2 & 3 below are not required.)
2. Number of training hours completed – provide a list of courses with associated hours, and total the number of hours taken; and
3. Identification of how all components listed above has been acquired. Course outlines, syllabus, or similar documentation is required.

Appendix II Mediation Experience

Applicants can meet the experience requirement through any one of the following three options. It is not necessary to satisfy both the requirements of Option A and of Option B.

OPTION A: EXPERIENCED PRACTITIONERS

A WMA member can satisfy Option A if the member has at least 200 hours of mediation experience in the last 10 years and submits a letter of recommendation.

The following documentation must accompany the application and must include:

1. The approximate total number of hours of mediation experience and the time period;
2. A listing of the types of cases mediated and number of hours per type;
3. Mediation Log which includes: date of mediation, location, type of case, duration of mediation, supervised hours and total hours. (Reference: WMA Generic Certification Mediation Log.xls for a sample document.);
4. The name(s) of the organization(s) for which the mediations were conducted;
5. A letter of recommendation from an experienced mediator or mediation organization referencing the applicant's specific mediation abilities. It should include how the applicant manages the mediation process and how s/he relates to the parties. The recommendation can be based on personal co-mediation experience with the applicant, client evaluations, or a review of other co-mediator evaluations.

OR

OPTION B: PRACTICUM COMPLETION:

A WMA member can satisfy Option B if the member has

1. At least 24 hours of supervised mediation at either a Washington State Dispute Resolution Center WMA pre-approved practicum
or
A WMA pre-approved practicum that meets all the qualifications required in the current manual for approved DRC Practicum providers. (Note: Please check with your DRC or our WMA website: www.WashingtonMediation.org, Mediator Certification tab, Practicum Information page for a list of WMA approved Practicum Programs.)

And

2. A minimum of 36 additional hours of post-practicum mediation.

The following documentation must accompany the application and must include:

1. A certificate and/or statement of completion from the DRC or the WMA pre-approved practicum indicating the applicant's successful completion of their Practicum under the direction of a WMA qualified practicum supervisor;
2. A listing of the types of cases mediated and the number of hours each type represents for both the 24 hours of supervised mediations and the minimum 36 hours of post-practicum mediation experience;
3. Mediation Log which includes: date of mediation, location, type of case, duration of mediation, supervised hours and total hours. (Reference: WMA Generic Certification Mediation Log.xls for a sample document.)

OR

OPTION C: OUT-OF-STATE APPLICANTS: A WMA member who has gained mediation experience in another state will be considered on a case-by-case basis. Required documentation of mediation experience will be similar to that in Option A (or Option B only if practicum is pre-approved).
